Wedded to V. T. Worthington at Beverly eds Farms, Mass., was the scene of a wedding at noon yeswhen Miss Anne Middleton Means, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Means little, became the bride of Valentine Worthington, an Oxford gradate and an attorney in New York City. He is the son of Mrs. M. G. Worthingof 29 East Seventy-seventh Street, lew York City. The ceremony was performed by the er, Neilson Poe Carey, rector of St. com. Arthur Little, the bride's stepfather, gave her in marriage. The bride's only attendant was her maid of tenor, her sister, Miss Jessie Means. The best man was Harold Worthington, d New York City, a brother of the

The Littles have a town house in and a summer home at the farms, and there were guests for the aremony from many of the colonies dong the North Shore and from New York, Baltimore, Washington, Provi-

The bride were white brocade, with The bride were white brocade, with venice lace trimmings, and carried white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. The maid of honor was in blue velvet, with gray fur trimmings and with hat a self to match. She carried yellow

The maid of honor was in blue velvet, with gray fur trimmings and with hat and muft to match. She carried yellow as roses and violets.

The ushers were the Hon. Thomas sering Rice, third secretary of the British Embassy at Washington; Leroy King, E. Pennington Pearson and William N. Taylor, of New York; Henry M. Thomas, of Baltimore; A. Nicholas Begrio, of Beverly Farms, a brother-injury of the bridegroom, and Robert W. Means and William G. Means, of the Farms, brothers of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Caroline W. Fester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. W. Foster, of Charles River Village, and Theodore Sizer, of 53 East Seven-y-third Street, New York, took place pasterday afternoon in the First Parish Charch, Dover, Mass. The ceremony as performed by the Rev. William Isolaton Lawrence.

The maid of honor, Miss Hilds C. Poster, a sister of the bride; Miss Em-nalena Sizer, a sister of the bride-groom, and Miss Edith Nagel, of St. room, and Miss Edita Saget, of St.

cours, were in shimmering manye silk, on Wednesds while the other bridesmaids, Miss Esther Hosmer, Miss Edith H. and Miss Barbara Foster, sisters of the bride, were in blue silk. Henry Parkman, jr., was the best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Sizer will live in New

Mr. and Mr. and Mr.

Farms, Mass. St. John's Episcopal Church, at Bev-

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seymour, of 65 Prospect Street, East Orange, N. J., was married last evening to W. Ripley Nelson, of East Orange, in Grace Church, Orange, N. J. The Rev. Churles Walkley, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Stanley White, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Mary Wheatley, Mrs. Olive Newcomb, sister of the bride, and Misses Lois Scherrer and Beatrice Boston. H. M. Dyckman was best man, and Frederick D. Seymour, brother of the bride; Donald Stewart, Reginald D. Smith and F. Hamilton Dyckman ware the usbers. Hamilton Dyckman were the ushers.

Miss Hildegarde Lasell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whitin Lasell, was married to James Sibley Watson, of Mr. and Mrs. James Sibley Watson, of Rochester, last evening in the Village Congregational Church in Whitinsville, Mass. Miss Lasell was attended by her sister, Mrs. Minturn do Horideyroom, F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, a cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, also a cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, also a cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, a cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, also a cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, a cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, as cousin of the bridegroom. F. Harper Sibley watson, of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whitin Lasell, was married to James Sibley Watson, of Mr. and Mrs. Chester, also a cousin of the village Congregational Church in the Village Congregation

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Anita Day, of Glen Ridge, N. J., to Patrick Kearney, of New York. No date has been set for

New York. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Day, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waters Burr Day, of Glen Ridge, is a graduate of the Florence Fleming Noves School of Rhythmic Expression and is at present engaged in conducting the Philadelphia studio devoted to the Noves work.

In the civic masque "Caliban," given last spring at the City College Stadium, Miss Day took the part of the leader of the Spirits of Ariel. At the Louis Tiffany birthday masque, held last winter, she impersonated the Spirit of Fire. She has danced at the Harry Payne Whitneys and the Vanderbilts. Payne Whitneys and the Vanderbilts.

Miss Louise Amelia Danwitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Danwitz, will be married to Victor Louis Larson on Wednesday evening in St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square. Mr. and Mrs. Larson will be at home after No-vember 18 at 230 Meeker Avenue,

Mr. and Mrs. I. Kaminsky, of 1113 Forest Avenue, will announce the en-gagement of their daughter, Mollie S. Kaminsky, to Irving Stein at a recep-tion to be held in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel to-day.

Morris Rosen, C. L. Bernheimer, R. Guggenheim, Leo Bache, Abe Stein, Felix Warburg, Charles Hirshorn, Jack Halle, Hugo Blumenthal, Sidney Borg, I. N. Spiegelberg, Morris Denzer, Myron Oppenheim, Alexander Kohut, A. E. Nussbaum, R. Denzer and Edward Barger.

beth Speer Andrews was flower girl; the bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Stebbins Clark, Mrs. Courtlandt P. Dixon Z. Miss Elsie Garretson Finch, Miss Helen Hunter Norwell, Miss Madeline Lawrence Bogart, Miss Janet Lawrence McKim, Miss Cara Lane and Miss Augusta Dixon. Frederick Hamilton Clark, brother of the bridegroom, was best man; the ushers were Charles Waterbury Clark, C. Louis Dixon, Wyllys Dixon, Richmond Weed, Richard P. Kent, Henry T. Maury, Anthony J. Bleecker and Morris Underhill.

Miss Margaret Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seymour, of 65 Prospect Street, East Orange, N. J., was married last evening to W. Ripley Miss Bertha Westervelt Large, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kirk Large, of East Whitehouse, N. J., and Guerin Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund N. Todd, of Milburn, N. J., were married yesterday afternoon in the Reformed Church at Whitehouse Station, N. Law the Rev. H. Loves the Reformed Church at Whitehouse Station, N. J., by the Rev. H. T. Jones, the rector of the church and a brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Charles Mellen Tyler, of Scranton, professor emeritus of Cornell University and an uncle of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Marion Shove, of Syracuse, N. Y., and the bridesmaids were the Misses Marguerite Carpenter, of Plainfield; Jennessee Betts, of New York; Helen Large, of Flemington, and Marion Skill-> was best man.

>
> Miss Elizabeth LeFavre Elting, of Yonkers, whose husband was president of the Westchester Trust Company, that city, at the time of his death, and Leon Hills Smith, of Boston, were married yesterday in the home of the bride's mother, 237 South Broadway. The Rev. John Mark Eriscoon, rector of St. John's Episcoopal Church, Yonkers, whose husband was president of the was appointed instructor in roward to the was appointed instructor in roward to hear them sing heard what John's Episcopal Church, Yonkers, officiated.

Miss Helen Elting, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Henry Taft Wheelock was best man.

Miss Doris Tiffany Also a Former Golf Champion

Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 14 .- Miss Doris Tiffany, of this city, was married in the First Presbyterian Church, after a Catholic ceremony, to-day by the Rev. Frederick Emerson Stockwell to Jerome Dunstan Travers, of New York City. The marriage is the culmination of a golf links romance. The officiating pas-golf links romance. The officiating pastor was assisted by the Rev. Walton Decker, of Worcester. Mass., a cousin of the bride, who has been on the Mexican border with his regiment, the 2d Massachusetts Infantry.

The bride was attended by Miss Justine Weston, of this city, as maid of honor. The best man was Francis R. Henderson, of Upper Montclair, and the ushers were Ralph A. Day and Arthur Sweezey, of Upper Montclair, and the ushers were Ralph A. Day and Arthur Sweezey, of Upper Montclair, and James P. Travers, cousin of the bridegroom, and Humphrey Cuyler Tiffany, brother of the bride, of New York.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Powelton Club, Balmville, at which 500 guests, including many from New York and Brooklyn, were present.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY

ARTISTS HEARD VON KLENZE GOES IN TWO RECITALS TO CITY COLLEGE

Fritz Kreisler Plays Violin Brown University Profesand Reinald Werrenrath Sings

and who are so far above dispraise as the retirement of Adolph Werner, nessee Betts, of New 1914, Italy and Marion Skill-Large, of Flemington, and Marion Skill-man, of Lambertville. Nelson Todd, of Millburn, a brother of the bridegroom, the perfunctory record is not likely to the perfunctory record is not likely to the perfunctory record is not likely to will assume his duties on December 1.

went to hear them sing heard what mance languages-1890-'91-at Cornell hear Fritz Kreisler play the violin in Dr. von Klenze next went to the Uni-Carnegie Hall and Reinald Werrenrath versity of Chicago, where he was suc-

Miss Eleanor Powell was married yesterday afternoon in her home. 415 Pelham Road, New Rochelle, to Roger Luther Lyon, a descendant of Martin Luther. The Rev- Dr. Cornelius Wolfkin, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York City, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. E. H. Dutton. The bride, who is a daughter of Mrs. W. C. Cramp, wife of Dr. W. C. Cramp, of New Rochelle, and granddaughter of Colonel Joel W. Mason, onetime Police Commissioner of New York City, was attended by her sisters, the Misses Mary and Josephine Powell. The best man was William Stone.

The couple will live at 600 Riverside Drive, New York City.

TRAVERS TAKES BRIDE IN ROMANCE OF LINKS noon provided a large measure of de-light; and if this feature were to be pursued this notice might develop, or degenerate, into a criticism of public taste, and the attitude of Mr. Kreisler toward art, which, of course would be eplorable.

As for Mr. Werrenrath, who is a su perb singer, and in his way quite an educational element in the American song world, we do not know that it

The run had been one of the most exciting held this season, as the weather SHELLS NET PROMOTER has been so dry that hounds could not stick to the trail. When the fox was jumped to-day he went to view several times, and at one time hounds ran on sight for a short distance. Finally the fox managed to throw them at the new and smartest Fur Styles of this season, as evidenced in the Foreign Models that we are now displaying.

Style

MILITARY ef-

Our European Modes, together with the products of our own designers, constitute one of the largest and most Style Pamphlet on Request.

Jaeckel &

384 Fifth Avenue

Telephone, Greeley-2044. Between 35th and 36th Sts.

interesting collections to be seen anywhere.

Appeal

largely in

sor Takes German Chair in New York

ADVERTISEMENT.

Must the Greatest State Have the Worst Government?

WHAT THE EDITORS SAID:

Whitman to veto extravagant appropriations and prevent a direct tax.

on the shoulders of Charles S. Whitman. . . . He can save to the people of the state a vast sum of money. . . .

compliance and assistance in the plans of the statesmen who have devised the raid on the taxpayers, gives to their programme of despoliation his aid and countenance, confirms by his act their plan of plunder, the oppressed and outraged citizens will know precisely on whom their anger should be justly visited."

in taxation, will not be willing to let them stay there."

Likewise the New York Tribune stated on April 2, 1915:

when asked to mark a Republican ballot."

creased by 35 per cent the cost of running the state.

party of the blot that Governor Whitman has put upon it.

This is what the Sun said in the leading editorial of that date:

WHITMAN A REPUBLICAN?

On April 28, 1915, the New York Sun called upon Governor

"The whole onus of the raid on the taxpayers rests to-day "And if Governor Whitman chooses the other course, of

In similar vein the New York Press on April 16, 1915, editorially

"The party penalty for piling a prodigious tax burden on "Governor Whitman . . . has lacked the ability or the courage to take command of the situation and bring into it some

"The Governor and the Legislative leaders in co-operation the backs of the people will be the alienation of tens of thousands of voters who wanted a Republican Legislature and a Republican Governor, but who, after an unprecedented increase order, some decency, some heed to public interests and public still have opportunity to correct most of the mistakes which have been made. If they hope for party success this fall-still more, next fall-they must make a record for their party now which will not cause every intelligent young voter to hold his nose

He signed extravagant appropriations, approved the direct tax and inwhelming can self-respecting and public spirited Republicans cleanse their

Republicans-are YOU for Whitman, or for the future of your State and your party?

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

Governor Whitman flouted all advice and defied public sentiment.

Only by repudiating Candidate Whitman with a majority that is over-they expected and wanted and were University, and served in the Germanic made happy; the people who went to language department from 1891 to 1893. cessively instructor, assistant, associate and ranking professor of Germanic tongues. In 1906 he was called to tongues. In 1906 he was called to Brown, since which time he has been head of the German department there. Retirements have been allowed Professor Henry P. Johnston, head of the history department; Professors Henry S. Carr and Samuel Hanaway, mathematics, and Moses S. Levussove, art. Dr. Johnston is to enjoy the title of emeritus professor in the history department, Drs. Werner and McGuickin being the only other retired members of the staff since the death of Charles Hebermann to hold the emeritus degree.

Professor Johnston has given thirty-seven years' service in the teaching capacity at City College.

TUXEDO PREPARES FOR ANNUAL BALL

Many Give Dinners for Miss Cannon Tuxedo Park, Oct. 14.- The season is in full swing and all are preparing for the annual ball, which is going to be one of the notable events of the song world, we do not know that it would profit anybody if he were to be praised or blamed for cultivating the declamatory style to the extent of droping occasionally the song voice for the speaking, as he did yesterday when he shouted "Und lacht!" at the end of the song "Auf Wachtposten." It is a nice question, which, perhaps, might better be reserved for the higher court of review.

H. E. K.

Is in full swing and all all preparing in for the annual ball, which is going to the one of the notable events of the year. The weather is perfect and every cottager is entertaining. Many are giving dinners for Miss Elizabeth Adelaide Cannon, who will marry Henry Luden, of Holland, here at the Frelinghuyson cottage on the 28th.

Nearly every cottage is now occupied and all will remain so until after Theorem.

Thanksgiving.
Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Tilford gave a Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Illiord gave a dinner at their cottage to-night and Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace Forsyth are entertaining at the clubhouse. Charles E. Sampson, who is at the Pot-ter cottage, gave a large luncheon on Friday and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Le-roy Emmet gave a dinner at their villa

Brook Hunt Club

Westbury, L. I., Oct. 14.—Rain proved a great boon to the Meadow Brook Hunt Club hounds to-day, and they were present.

The bride has been holder of championships in golf and tennis. The bridegroom held the national amateur championship four times, last year taking the national open championship.

Mr. and Mrs. Travers will live in New York City.

Brook Hunt Club

Westbury, L. I., Oct. 14.—Rain proved a great boon to the Meadow Brook Hunt Club hounds to-day, and they were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were able to trail fast and stick to the were are many dinners and house particles scheduled. Among those who will entertain are Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth Wickes, Mr. and Mrs. The odore Freinghuysen and Mrs. The run had been one of the most ex-

$640,000 IN COURT

Suit Over $1,600,000 War Profit by "Shadow Chaser"

on sight for a short distance. Finally the for managed to throw them at fault long enough to get a good start, and he then began to put country between him and the pack. They stuck to their work, however, and after an hour and a half, during which time the riders had some exceptionally good jumping and galloping in the open country, hounds killed.

Miss Barbara Whitney was first in at the death and won the brush, while Mrs. Mary Alexander was close up and received the mask.

Others who finished with the field were Henry Payne Whitney, Egerton Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. von Stade, Miss Elizabeth Kirlin, G. P. Snow, Mrs. James A. Burden, Harvey S. Ladew, Henry Godfrey, S. A. W. Baltazzi, George Schwartz, H. I. Nicholas, the M. F. H., and Thomas Allison, the huntsman. Judge Sheppard decided in the United

Old Yale Club for D. K. E.

The building at Forty-fourth Street and Fifth Avenue formerly occupied by the Yale Club will be reopened in part rext week as headquarters for the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Opening exercises will not be held, however, until the completion of the rebuilding in December. Frederick B. Jennings has been elected president of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Club; A. Barton Hepburn, vice-president; Harold S. Swift, of Chicago, second vice-president; Car-isle J. Gleason, secretary, and James Colgate, treasurer.

DIED.

GARDINER.—On October 14, Robert, beloved brother of James Thomas

Barnum, Mary L.
Gardiner, Robert.
Gellatly, Francis E. Swan, Robert.
Harmon, Benj. S.
Johnston, E. A.
Kipper,
Wurtay, Helen B.
Randell, James W.
Gunderwood, H. G.
Willson, Happy A.
Winthrop, Sallie H. Kipper, Mildeberger, John.

BARNUM—Suddenly, of pneumonia, on Saturday, October, 14, at her late residence, the Apthorp, New York City, Mary L. Barnum, wife of the late David B. Barnum and mother of Mrs. A. S. MacArthur. Funeral service at St. Bartholomew's Church, 44th st. and Madison av., Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

morning at 11 o'clock.

GELLATLY—At 'Orange, N. J., October 14, 1916, Francis Edwin, husband of Julia Bigelow and son of the late William Adams and Anna Burt Geliatly, in his 53d year. Funeral services at his home, 64 High st., Monday, October 16, 2:30 p. m. beloved brother of James, Thomas and Nellie Gardiner and Mrs. Marie Nugent. Funeral from his late resi-dence, 623 West 138th st., Monday, MARRIED.

CLARK—DIXON—On Saturday, October 14, at St. George's Church, Flushing, Long Island, by the Rev. S. De Lancey Townsend, D. D., Elizabeth St. and Convent av., where a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated. Interment, Kingston, Ontario.

HARMON—On Saturday morning, October 14, at Sarense Lake, Benjamin S., beloved husband of Helen K. Harmon. Funeral from his late residence, 30 East 55th st., New York City, Tuesday morning, October 17, at 10 o'clock.

Doughkeepsie, N. Y.

Doughkeepsie, N. Y.

Nugent. Funeral services at his late services at his late residence, 6310 Walnut st., East End, Pittsburgh, Tuesday afternoon.

UNDERWOOD—On Thursday, October 12, 1916, at Atlantic City, N. J., the City, Tuesday morning, October 17, at 10 o'clock.

Doughkeepsie, N. Y.

JOHNSTON—At Poughkeepsie, N. Y., October 13, Elizabeth A., daughter of Floy M. and Mattie Forrester John-ston. Funeral services at her late residence, 143 Academy st., on Mon-day, at 3 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

KIPPER—Died in Tompkinsville, S. L. on October 12, 1916. Funeral services from his late residence, 53 Van Duzer st., Monday afternoon, at Church, MILDEBERGER-Entered into rest, on Friday, October 13, 1916, at his residence, the San Remo Hotel, John, the beloved husband of Charlotte Augusta Schmelzel and son of the late Oliver and Judith Mildeberger. Funeral private.

MURRAY On Friday, the 13th of Oc-tober, in Goshen, N. Y., Helen Beam, wife of George Wickham Murray, Funeral service at late residence, at half past 2 o'clock on Monday, the 16th of October.

residence, James Wells Randell, in the 87th year of his age. Funeral services Tuesday morning, October 17, at 10 o'cleck, at the Chapel of the Marble Collegiate Church, Fifth av. and 29th st.

Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, cor-ner South Oxford st., Sunday after-noon, October 15, at 2:45 o'clock.

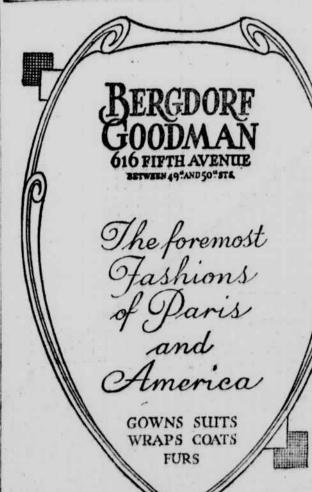

WILLSON—At Bronxville, N. Y., Friday, October 13, 1916, Happy Augusta Willson, daughter of the late Albert and Olive W. Daniels, of Canandaigus, N. Y., and widow of the late Sibley Willson. Funeral service at Christ Church, Bronxville, Sunday, October 15, at 4 p. m. Interment at Canandaigus Monday, 10:30 a. m., at the old cemetery.

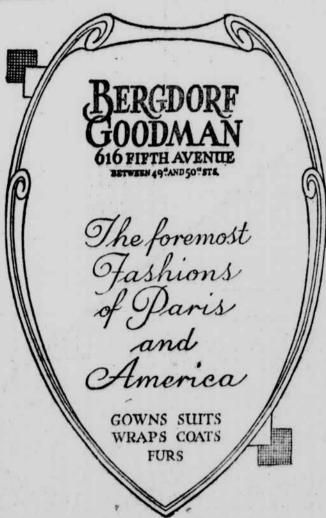

Canandaigus Monday, 10:30 a. m., at the old cemetery.

WINTHROP—In Newport on Saturday, October 14, Sallie H. Winthrop, widow of Buckanan Winthrop and daugh-ter of the late Isaac Townsend. Funeral services at her late residencein Newport Tuesday, October 17, at 9:30 a. m.

CEMETERIES.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY. Id St. By Harren. Lots of small size for sale. Office 29 East 23d St., N. V.

OF CORSETS -AND SERVICE THE NEW NEMO BACK-RESTING CORSE It Rests Your Back! GIVES lines of ultra fashion. Flattens back, expands chest, helps contract abdomen. Induces erect bearing, healthful RELIEVES back. ache by supporting tired muscles. Soothes irritated nerves; gives restful comfort. FOR all figures, from I the slip of a girl to the substantial matron. No. 338-for slim, girlish Stres 19 to 20 -$3.00. No. 350 - for elender to medium figures; highly boned; sizes 20 to 30 - $3 50. No. 500-for full figures; "Invisible" Self-Reducing Straps-$5.00. This ENTIRELY NEW CORSET-SERVICE is worthy of close investigation by every woma Nemo Hygicaje Fashion Institute, New York GOOD STORES EVERYWHERE

Miss Elizabeth Marguerite Dixon was married yesterday in St. George's Charch, Flushing, to Henry Austin Clark. Miss Dixon is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. James W. Dixon, of Rushing, Mr. Clark, who is a director of the Cuban Sugar Refining Company, a the son of the late Frederick Hamilton Clark. Miss Mary Newbury Dixon was been Clark. Miss Dixon is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. James W. Dixon, of Rushing. Mr. Clark, who is a director of the Cuban Sugar Refining Company, a the son of the late Frederick Hammitton Clark. Miss Mary Newbury Dixon was her dister's maid of honor; Miss Eliza Miss Mary Newbury Dixon was her dister's maid of honor; Miss Eliza Charles Oppenheim, I. N. Seligman,

ANTICIPATING THE IMPENDING SOCIAL SEASON,

PRESENT ON MONDAY in their Fifth Floor Salon

GOWNS

for the

OPERA, DINNER AND DANCE

of their own design, inspired from the best of the latest Paris productions.

Also

Afternoon and Day-time Frocks that strike a decidedly new note in softness and tailoring, certain to establish a standard of beauty in the winter's vogue.

Fifth Avenue, at Fifty-Second Street